

Extra, Extra!

Many things happened throughout the 51 years that Arizona was a territory. Head to the Territorial Timeline exhibit on the 2nd floor and choose an event or person that interests you as the subject of a newspaper article. Continue your research back at school and draft your article on the back of this sheet.

Event or person:

Who?	What?	Where?
When?	Why?	How?

Tips:

- Your headline should be catchy and short, enough to grab the reader's attention
- Add pictures to your article! Sketch what you think the event would have looked like or the people who would have been there
- Add interviews with "witnesses"- this will make your article more interesting and add to the story
