

Picture Perfect

At the beginning of the 20th century, an artist named Lon Megargee created paintings to show the beauty of Arizona to people across the country. Using Megargee's paintings on the 2nd floor as inspiration, create your own image of Arizona today to show to someone who has never been here before!

